Our Legacy, Highlander 2013, Volume 61

Enrollment: 736

This yearbook is dedicated to Andy Friend and Precious Alton, two class of 2013 students who passed away during middle school.

Kassi Smith Senior Editor

It's sad to know that my time in yearbook is done. This year I got to work with some amazing people. I got to teach my baby sister everything about yearbook and help her with her first year of yearbook. To Syd, thanks for all your help in making this an amazing yearbook. Zump, this year has been h-e-double hockey sticks, and it was a pain, but I am glad we had each other to work together. Abby, Leah, and MiKayla, I wish you the best senior year and hope you have an awesome time creating your last yearbook. The year will fly, so stay true to yourselves and just have fun! Once it's gone, you can't go back. And for the senior class, we did it! It's been a blast with all of you! I can't believe we actually did it! Congrats Class of 2013!

Sydney Legeer Senior Editor

As we end another year, the seniors say their final goodbyes. The Class of 2013 has left their legacy on the school, athletic fields, and each other. The Highlander Yearbook Staff has created Our Legacy to leave a lasting impression of recollections. It is the perfect book that will savor the sweet memories of the eventful year. Kassi, although we did not have class together, we pulled through to make this yearbook the best one yet. Zump, without you, any Highlander yearbook would not be half as good as it is. To the underclassmen on the yearbook staff, I hope you work just as hard as you did this year, so the yearbook can be even better in the future. I wish the best of luck to the students next year, and I hope they enjoy their years at Southern as much as the Class of 2013!

Ms. Zumpano, Advisor

So another year comes to a close and once again the yearbook staff has worked hard to capture 2012-2013 memories for the students at SHS. Thank you staff for your work on "Our Legacy". I know it has been rough, very rough at times, but you came through and produced a publication that will serve as memories for a lifetime. Thank you Kassi Smith and Sydney Legeer for serving as senior editors. You will be missed next year! I hope all of you yearbook students are able to look back on the year and smile. :)

Good luck class of 2013. May your futures be as bright as you are!

Leah Welch*Underclassmen Editor

I couldn't be more proud of the yearbook this year and the people who helped make it. This wasn't easy but every second was worth it. This yearbook couldn't have been better! Kassi and Sydney, thank you for all the wonderful ideas and all the time you had put into this book. Zump, for staying calm even when you wanted to flip and being a great woman for me to look up to. Abby and Mikayla, for working with me ad everyone else. Getting stressed out and never quitting on this yearbook. I can't wait until next year so I can do it all again! Good luck to all the Seniors and may everything work out to be the best!

MiKayla Markwood*Underclassmen Editor

I am very proud of our yearbook this year. We had a couple rough spots, but we managed to pull it off and made it look great! None of us could have done it if it wasn't for each other. Zump, for always pushing us to finish our pages, sell our ads, and having patience with us. Kassi and Sydney, for always having great ideas and giving your time to the yearbook and making it amazing. Abby and Leah, for always being on top of things, finishing pages that needed completed, and having good input. Thank you all for making my junior year of yearbook very memorable. Congratulations Class of 2013, I wish you all the best of luck!

Abby Hopkins*Underclassmen Editor

Being one of the three underclassmen editors this year was such a privilege. I loved getting to go in depth with the yearbook and helping the other staff members. I couldn't have asked for better senior editors to lead us more than Kassi and Sydney. You guys set the bar high for next year's book. I hope next year I am able to fulfill the job as great as they did. SH is so lucky to have such a great yearbook advisor. None of what we do would be possible with you Zump. After finishing this year and learning so much I am ready to take on next year and to create a yearbook that all of the students and staff will love and never forget.

A young man now stands where our baby used to be and the sight of him all grown up gives us great joy. Our son has become a wiser and stronger man than we ever dreamed he could be and to his little brother he is a great friend and an amazing big brother. We know by looking at him that God had blessed us in ways that we will never forget. He will be a great man to the world and that is how it should be, but deep in our hearts and souls he will always be OUR LITTLE BOY.

We love you,
Dad, Mom, and Bryson

My Son Grows Up

My hands were busy through the day, but I still made time to read and play. I'd tuck you in all safe at night and say our prayers, turn out the light. Then tiptoe softly to the door; I wish I stayed a minute more. For life is short, the years rush past, my little boy grows up so fast. The G.I. Joes are put away, safely stored for some other day. That all belongs to yesterday, but I wish we could go back and do the little things we used to do.

I am so proud of you. Love and success to my first born son.
Love, Mom

Antony Shreve

As you make a new beginning in life, be aware of important things that you may not have learned in school:
As you pursue your dreams, remember to take time to help and serve others even if doing so slows you down a little.
As you explore and develop your unique talents, remain humble, realizing that your special abilities are gifts from God.
As life hands you challenges, welcome them as ways to become smarter and stronger.
As you acquire material things, know that your most important possessions are honesty, integrity, and the desire to make a difference.

Congratulations Jacob, We are very proud of you!

Sierra Miller

Your story began 12 years ago when we walked you into school for the first time. Since then there have been many chapters written, some short and some long. Today when we walk you into school for the last time we know this next chapter will be the best one yet. You're now the author of your own book and you control how it ends. There will be sections that you wish you could rewrite along the way but those are the parts you learn the most from. Stay true to who you are and never let someone else's words keep you from reaching your dreams. Be the person who clears the path that others can follow and your pages will be full of adventures. As this journey begins, remember that we are your biggest fan and so proud of the person you are and have yet to become.

Congratulations sissy...Love Mom and Wayne!

Sydney Legeer

Sydney Leigh,

We have watched you grow and evolve into just about the nicest person on the planet. You have shown lots of initiative through high school and questioned everything. Your teachers will probably attest to both.

As a toddler, you dropped all the loose change into your bank, smiled and said "college." And, so, here we are.

Remember, wisdom outweighs any wealth. Always desire to learn something useful. Commencement is truly a beginning (Look it up!) so continue to work hard. We are expecting big things from you.

With all our love,
Dad and Lisa

Out there things can happen and frequently do to people as brainy and footsy as you. Just never forget to be dexterous and deft. And never mix up your right foot with your left. Oh! The places you'll go! Your mountain is waiting. So... get on your way!" -Dr. Seuss

Grow strong, be brave, make good choices and have many, many excellent adventures.

For all the seniors in Mr. Bowman's Physics class, I hope you can find SOMEONE to bake you chocolate chip cookies next year. Remember me fondly....Mrs Smith, aka the cookie lady, aka Memee.

For my Theatre Seniors: Dream big, forgive easily, fight hard, be honest, live clean and above all-strange. The road will be long and often hard. When you get tired, come home and let us remind you just how special you are. Thanks for filling the past four years with terror, color and joy. I love you like my own. -MW
